

"Payment for Communication Services" Reward of the Humans Loyalty Program

Descriptions for the Reward

The Reward allows the Participant to pay for all or part of the Communication Services using the funds in the Participant's Cashback account.

Conditions of Humans tariffs for communication services operating on the territory of Uzbekistan are posted on the Humans website.

Conditions for the Reward

In order to be able to use the "Payment for Communication Services" promotion, the Participant in the Mobile App, following the instructions of its interfaces, must take the necessary actions in order to authorize the spending of the Cashback account to pay for Communication Services.

In this case, when paying for Communication Services, funds will be debited to the Participant's Cashback account first.

Reward order occurs automatically if there is a need for debiting from the Participant's Personal account caused by: activation or automatic prolongation of the Tariff package, Unlimited apps options, Options "Unlimited SMS", Options for extensions of the Tariff package (options "100 minutes", "300 minutes", "500 minutes", "1 gigabyte", "2 gigabytes", "4 gigabytes"), payment for services: Number Change Service, Selection of Special Phone Number Service, Provision of Special Phone Number Service (hereinafter referred to as Communication Services).

In this case, the full cost of the Communication Services is debited from the Participant's Cashback account, and the account is not debited. If there are not enough funds on the Participant's Cashback account to fully pay the cost of the Communication Services, all funds are debited from the Participant's Cashback account, the rest of the amount up to the full cost of Communication Services is debited from the Participant's Personal account.

Multiple order of Rewards is available.

The Order of the Reward is available from 2021 Sep 01 without time limitation until its cancellation.
